IV. Organization Liaison Reports, continued

f. Extra-ordinary Ministers: Deacon Frank Langsdorf

- Looking for more volunteers to visit and give Holy Communion to the shut-ins.

V. Old Business:

- a. New Family Sunday was held on Sunday, March 6, 2011-Approximately 40 new parishioners attended.

VI. Ongoing/New Business:

- a. Parish Goals and Objectives Update – Teams working toward final draft; next step includes review by parishioners (bulletin & on website)
- b. Pastoral Council Nominations will be held from April 30th through May 22, 2011.
- c. New Web Site Launch- a demonstration was given Jim Roberts, Sue Rinaldi, and Tom Shakely.

VII. Summary of Finance Council Activity

- a. School and REC budgets: Finance Council has prepared these budgets from which the 2011-2012 tuition rates have been established.
- b. Bank Evaluations: Thorough evaluation with several local banks to determine which one offered best services and overall rate/fee package. It was determined that we would stay with First Niagara (formerly Harleystown National) for our main operating accounts due to aforementioned reasons along with factors such as convenience and familiarity. However, we will periodically review banking situation to continue to get best services available.
- c. Financial Report to Parishioners appeared in the Sunday Bulletin.
- d. Church Bulletin: Evaluating options since contract expires in October.
- e. TD Bank Affinity Program: The amount of $6300.00 has been contributed this past year and over $12,500 for the past two years. It is important that we keep increasing our participation so that we will continue to receive contributions from TD Bank and hopefully enhance the amount that we will be eligible to receive.
