PASTOR'S MESSAGE

THE ROMAN MISSAL THIRD EDITION

"The very heart of our celebration"

At the heart of the celebration of Mass is the Eucharistic Prayer. There are several Eucharistic Prayers that may be used, chosen by the priest to best fit the occasion of the celebration. On Sundays, we typically hear Eucharistic Prayer I, called the Roman Canon, or Eucharistic Prayer III. Each prayer expresses in its own way the Paschal Mystery of Jesus' passion, death, and resurrection; this remembering is called the anamnesis. Each Eucharistic Prayer calls down the Holy Spirit to change the bread and wine into the True Body and Blood of Jesus Christ; this invocation is called the epiclesis. Each Eucharistic Prayer intercedes on behalf of the entire Church, both for the earthly members like the Pope and the Bishop, as well as for those who have died in Christ, that they may enjoy eternal life in heaven.

Although the images and language differ in the various Eucharistic Prayers, the words of consecration remain constant recounting the words and actions of Jesus at the Last Supper. This is sometimes called the Institution Narrative. In a beautiful way, these words bring together the various Gospel accounts of the Last Supper where Jesus instituted the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist which is celebrated "in memory" of Him. The one offering of Jesus on the Cross is made present again through the praying of the Eucharistic Prayer. This allows us to stand mystically at the foot of the Cross. Our holy remembering, through the power of the Holy Spirit, brings the offering of Christ into the present moment and allows us to share in the redemption He won for us.

[This is the fifth of eight "installments" given by the Archdiocese to prepare parishes for the introduction of the new translation of the Roman Missal which we will begin to use on the First Sunday of Advent, November 27th.]

The Corpus Christi Pre-Cana Team has been working with engaged couples for over thirteen years! We are once again looking for married couples to join this rewarding ministry. Gospel, Matthew 25:1-13 In the parable of the five sensible bridesmaids and the five foolish bridesmaids, Jesus emphasizes the fact that we must always be ready for the coming of Christ because in his words, "You know not the day or the hour."

Family Connection

In the daily activities of family life, we can easily find excuses for not attending to our spiritual lives. If not given top priority, prayer and reading Scripture risk becoming occasional activities rather than daily practices. In today's Gospel, Jesus reminds us that if we fail to give our spiritual life priority, we will find ourselves unprepared to receive Jesus. Daily prayer and spiritual practice keeps us ready to receive Jesus.

Gather together as a family and talk about some of the things our faith calls us to do every day and every week to keep God first in our lives. Talk about what might happen if we don't do these things regularly. Explain to your family that Jesus taught us that it is important to keep ourselves ready to receive him when he comes again. Tell them to listen as you read the parable that Jesus tells in today's Gospel. Read aloud Matthew 25:1-13. Talk with your family about why Jesus says that it is so important to remain ready to receive the Kingdom of Heaven. Pray together that your family will always keep God first in your lives so that you will all be prepared to receive Jesus when he comes. Pray together the Act of Hope.

CONCLUSION OF CAMPAIGN FOR THE PURCHASE OF 3D ULTRASOUND MACHINE FOR "A BABY'S BREATH" CRISIS PREGNANCY CENTER

The Knights of Columbus Council #9715 has now concluded our campaign to purchase and donate a 3-D Ultrasound Machine to "A Baby's Breath" Crisis Pregnancy Center.

With the assistance of other regional Knights Councils, including Mount St. Joseph Academy, Father Joseph C. Tomko Assembly, St. Leo Council, Pius IX Council and Fr. Keeney Council, our campaign was the first in Pennsylvania to raise the necessary funds, be awarded the 100% MATCH by The Knights of Columbus Supreme Council's Ultrasound Initiative, and to complete this purchase! Last weekend, after all Masses, we held one additional special collection to help "A Baby's Breath" cover their annual $5000 insurance premium and other operating expenses related to the Ultrasound Machine.

We were OVERWHELMED by the generosity of our parish members that, despite our unexpected snow storm, contributed another $4,354.13 towards these needs.

If you were unable to give at Mass, and would like to send a check (payable to "Knights of Columbus #9715"), please mail your contribution to: Grand Knight Matthew Lendzinski, Knights of Columbus, 980 Jacks Lane, Lansdale, PA 19446.

Thank you again to everyone for your financial and spiritual support of this project. You can be certain that you have made a real difference in helping the unborn. God bless you!

Adoremus Te 2011 Recap: This year we brought 9 young people to the Adoremus Te retreat at the Malvern Retreat House in Malvern, PA. To begin the day, we enjoyed playing ultimate Frisbee, polishing up on ninja, and enjoying some soft pretzels and some dancing. We later went inside where we heard from a young man from Pope John Paul 2 High School, in which a paralyzing snowboarding accident was the door in which God gave this young man a strong faith through prayer and a strong devotion to St. Padre Pio and St. Therese of Lisieux (The Little Flower). His message to all of us was that "Nothing is Impossible for those who have faith in God." We then celebrated Mass with Bishop Thomas and other priests that were in attendance. After a wonderful dinner we gathered for a time of adoration, where we sang songs, opened our hearts to God's will for us, and enjoyed the beauty of Our Lord Jesus Christ in the Eucharist. The day was a huge success and our young people who attended truly enjoyed the day and experienced the Lord in a new way!

Words in the Roman Missal, Third Edition

Some of the words used in the new translation of the Mass may be unfamiliar to some Catholics. The following list of definitions may help to increase your understanding of the rich theology that underlies these texts.

Abasement: The lowering of one of higher rank. Jesus abased himself in that, though he was God, he lowered himself and became a human being so that he might save us from our sins (see Phil 2:6-11).

Adoption: In Baptism, the Holy Spirit transforms us into children of the Father, thereby making us his adopted sons and daughters in the likeness of his eternal Son (see Eph 1:3-6). In this way, the faithful are made “partakers in the divine nature (cf. 2 Pt 1:4) by uniting them in a living union with the only Son, the Savior” (Catechism of the Catholic Church [CCC], no. 1129). In the sacraments, we become the sons and daughters of God by adoption through Christ Jesus.

Angels and archangels, cherubim and seraphim, thrones and dominions: Spiritual, personal, and immortal creatures, with intelligence and free will, who glorify God and serve him as messengers of his saving plan. Traditionally, the choirs of angels have been divided into various ranks, including archangels, cherubim, seraphim, thrones, dominions, principalities, and powers (see Col 1:16).

Chalice: From the Latin word “calix” meaning “cup” (see Ps 116:13; Mt 20:22; 1 Cor 10:16). The use of this term in the Liturgy points to the chalice’s function as a particular kind of cup and indicates the uniqueness of what it contains, the very Blood of Christ.

Clemency: The loving kindness, compassion, or mercy that God shows to sinners.

Communion: Our fellowship and union with Jesus and other baptized Christians in the Church, which has its source and summit in the celebration of the Eucharist. By receiving Jesus in Holy Communion, we are united to him and one another as members of his Body.

Consecration: The dedication of a thing or person to divine service by a prayer or blessing. In the Mass, “consecration” also refers to the words spoken by the priest whereby the bread and wine are transformed into the risen Body and Blood of Jesus.

Consubstantial: The belief, articulated in the Nicene Creed, about the relationship of the Father and the Son: that “in the Father and with the Father, the Son is one and the same God” (CCC, no. 262).

Contrite: To be repentant within one’s heart and mind for sins committed and to resolve not to sin again.

Covenant: A solemn agreement between human beings, between God and a human being, or between God and a people involving mutual commitments or promises. In the Old Testament, God made a covenant with the Jewish people. Jesus, through his death and Resurrection, made a new covenant with the whole of humanity. One enters into this new covenant through faith and Baptism.

Damnation: Eternal separation from God’s love caused by dying in mortal sin without repentance.

Godhead: The mystery of one God in three Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Homage: The honor, respect, and reverence due to another. Homage is especially due to God, for he is eternal, all good, all holy, and all loving.

Implore: To plead, beseech, or ask with humility. This is an example of the self-deprecatory language in the Roman Missal that helps to express our dependence on God. We humbly beg the Father to hear and answer our prayers, for we ask them in the power of the Holy Spirit and in the name of Jesus.

Incarnation: The Son of God assumed human nature and became man by being conceived by the Holy Spirit in the womb of the Virgin Mary. Jesus is true God and true man. As man, the Son of God obtained our salvation. The use of this term in the Nicene Creed indicates that Jesus’ birth has a significance beyond that of any other human birth.

Ineffable: That which cannot be conceived or expressed fully (see 1 Cor 2:6-9). One cannot, for example, adequately describe in concepts and words the mystery of the Trinity or the mystery of the Incarnation.

Infusion: The Holy Spirit is poured into the hearts and souls of believers, and so they are filled, or infused, with grace.

Intercessor: One who makes a petition on behalf of others. Our unique intercessor is Jesus Christ, who intercedes on our behalf with the Father (see Rom 8:34). The priest at Mass acting in the person of Christ intercedes on behalf of the whole Church.

Justification: The gracious action by which God frees us from sin and makes us holy and righteous before him.

Lord, God of Hosts: From the word “sabaoth,” hosts are the invisible powers that work at God’s command over heaven and earth.

Mediator: One who unites or reconciles separate or opposing parties. Thus, Jesus Christ is the “one mediator between God and the human race” (1 Tm 2:5). Through his sacrificial offering he has become high priest and unique mediator who has gained for us access to the Father through the Holy Spirit.

Merit: The reward that God promises and gives to those who love him and who by his grace perform good works. One cannot earn justification or eternal life; they are the free gifts of God. Rather our merit is from God through Christ in the Holy Spirit. The Father freely justifies us in Christ through the indwelling of the Spirit; and Christians, by the same Holy Spirit, are empowered to do good works of love and justice. In cooperating with the Holy Spirit, the faithful receive further grace and thus, in Christ, cooperate in the work of their salvation.

Oblation: A gift or sacrifice offered to God.

Only-Begotten Son: This title “signifies the unique and eternal relationship of Jesus Christ to God his Father: he is the only Son of the Father (cf. Jn 1:14, 18; 3:16, 18); he is God himself (cf. Jn 1:1)” (CCC, no. 454). Jesus is the Son of God not by adoption but by nature.

Paschal: Referring to Christ’s work of redemption accomplished through his Passion, death, Resurrection, and Ascension. Through the Paschal Mystery, Jesus destroyed our death and restored us to life. The Paschal Mystery is celebrated and made present in the Liturgy so that we can obtain the fruit of Jesus’ death and Resurrection, that is, the forgiveness of our sins and the new life of the Holy Spirit.

Patriarchs: Title given to the venerable ancestors or “fathers” of the Semitic peoples, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, who received God’s promise of election.

Precursor: One who comes before as a herald. John the Baptist is the precursor of Jesus.

Provident grace: The free and undeserved gift that God gives us as he protects and governs all creation.

Redemption: Jesus Christ is our Savior and Redeemer because he frees us from our sin through his sacrificial death on the Cross.

Temporal: What pertains to this world of time and history, as opposed to what pertains to God, such as our new life in Christ through the indwelling of the Holy Spirit.

Venerate: To show devotion and respect to holy things and people. Catholics venerate relics and saints. Veneration must be clearly distinguished from adoration and worship, both of which pertain solely to the Trinity and Jesus as the Son of God.
